

Family Tours

The republic of Ecuador is located in South America, bordering Columbia in the North, Peru on the East and South and Pacific Ocean in the West. Galapagos Islands form a part of Ecuador located on the Pacific Ocean about 600 miles from the mainland. The country takes its name from the fact that the equator passes through the country. According to the Conservation International, Ecuador is a mega diverse country with more that 1600 bird species, 25,000 plant species, 106 species of reptiles and 6000 species of butterflies. The islands of the main cost are known for its distinctive flora and fauna and are also known for the origin of Darwin's Theory of evolution. Though the country faces a lot of economic upheavals, yet it is the preferred destination of many tourists. Ecuador is one of the most memorable holiday destinations and biologically diverse countries of the world. The Galapagos Islands off the cost of in Ecuador is an immaculate paradise with wonderful beaches and awesome scenery is a treat to watch. There are more than twenty parks and reserves which are unmatched in scenery and beauty. Emphasis on cruise and wildlife tours is a must for tourists. Ecuador is the most popular destinations with its forest reserve covered with mist and volcanic heights. More about tours in Ecuador A number of families are finding out the logic of marvel and pleasure that a holiday at Galapagos Island offers. The unusual combination of natural history, wildlife observation and beautiful sights makes a holiday in Galapagos the most preferred choice of families and children of any age. There is the option of leasing their own yacht for a tour of Galapagos or booking a room in one of the deluxe yacht. The best adventure for families and young children is traveling in a yacht to Galapagos Islands. The hotels in the Island offers a ideal blend that allows a combination of spending nights ashore and visiting the best archipelago during the day which is fitted with yacht to use it during the day. The option of making a 7-night package which includes a four night program at Royal Palm Galapagos Hotel and a scheduled Galapagos cruise is always present with the tourists. The famous Galapagos tortoise can be viewed from the yacht swimming in the clear blue waters. Closing Thoughts The specialty of colonial Ecuador is its traditional properties which are a great attraction for visitors who're interested in history. Colonial art of Spanish origin are preserved in the specially designed state of art museums. The capital city of Ecuador, Quito, is a great tourist destination with cathedrals and colonial architectures is a great place to spend a day or two. Ones in the old city, paved streets whitewashed and marble buildings give a feeling of colonial air. The country is known for its traditional character and cultural values which are conservative. They match the 18th century cultural surroundings which give it a proud tradition which has produced great writers, philosophers and artists. One must plan these trips after thorough thinking as a certain amount of risk is also involved.