

Weddings In Ecuador

The name of Ecuador invokes the bright and colorful pictures of the still virgin rainforests and the gushing rivers flowing from the different parts of the Amazon. The four unique geographical areas of Ecuador include the Amazon, the Highlands, the Coast, and the famous Galapagos Islands. Ecuador is also famous for adventure sports like hiking, rafting, trekking, Bungee jumping, trekking the volcanoes of Ecuador and much more. If you are planning your weddings or honeymoon in Ecuador then you choose for yourself simply heaven! No other place offers such great natural beauty with all the modern comforts. Enjoying your honeymoon in a lodge located in the lush green and pristine rainforests is one of the most memorable experiences of your life. There are many places to plan your weddings and honeymoon in Ecuador, which is at the centre of the world.

Hacienda Cusin Those planning to have the most romantic escape can certainly choose the Hacienda Cusin for their weddings. This is a lavish country inn where the gardens are always in full bloom and this wedding and honeymoon destination is 400 years old and bears the signs of the colonialism. This destination is situated at the foot of the Imbaburra volcano and is near Otavalo. The place has been blessed with unmatched scenery and natural beauty. There are leisure activities like horse-riding, mountain biking, and the high tea in the balcony while enjoying the surroundings will surely double your happiness at this place.

Las Palmeras The Las Palmeras is yet another romantic escape in Ecuador for the newly weds or those planning to wed. This destination is on a hillside and is to the north side of the equator. The local marketplace Otavalo is very near the Las Palmeras and is known all over the world. This place is known for its serene, calm, and natural environment and planning the wedding or honeymoon is just falling in love again for the couples. The inn can accommodate 50 to 100 guests for the wedding and the graceful cottages that come with all the modern amenities will add more romanticism to the weddings or the honeymoon. The smell of bougainvillea, the tall palm trees, and the blackberry orchard all grace the occasion of wedding.

Hacienda San Agustín de Callo The Inca Chapel at the Hacienda San Agustín de Callo offers a off the beaten track wedding place for the couples. The Inca Chapel is an ancient Incan ruin that has been restored. The Inca Chapel is a 17th century old place and inside the chapel 18 guests can attend the wedding but the courtyard can accommodate large gatherings of guests. The Cotopaxi volcano offers the most stunning view in the background for the guests. The old walls, the ceilings, and the ancient Inca carvings, with the stone walls takes one back in time. This is the most perfect place for arranging weddings.

Quito is another beautiful place for the couples to celebrate their weddings, anniversary, or honeymoon in Ecuador.
